

ICMOVPE XX

20th International Conference on Metalorganic Vapor Phase Epitaxy

Exhibition / Sponsoring / Advertisement

The 20th International Conference on Metalorganic Vapor Phase Epitaxy (ICMOVPE XX) will take place in Fellbach nearby Stuttgart, Germany, from July 10 till July 15, 2022. Since the first meeting 1981 in Ajaccio, France, this conference series has become a traditional meeting opportunity for the world-wide scientific community involved in MOVPE - from universities and research institutes as much as from industry. It is a forum where all topics relevant to MOVPE are addressed, ranging from surface science to device development, from basic growth mechanisms to production issues. The aim of the conference is to bring together physicists, chemists, material science specialists and engineers from all over the world to discuss the latest trends in the field of MOVPE growth of semiconductors and other materials, device fabrication, and related technological problems.

A commercial exhibition in close distance to the conference sessions and directly in the discussion and refreshment area will feature international exhibitors from all sectors of materials science and engineering communities. The opportunity for the industrial partners to present their products and to discuss with the attendees will be given from Monday, July 11 until Thursday, July 14. We expect overall more than 300 participants from academics and industry.
